Local Realtors® Recognized for 40-Plus Years of Dedication and Service

On October 13th, the National Association of Realtors® (NAR) recognized 18 local real estate agents who have achieved the status of Realtor® Emeritus. This honor is extended to those dedicated Realtors® who have held Association membership for 40 or more years. It recognizes their longstanding dedication and service to the real estate industry.

The Realtors® honored are Kenneth P. Barrow, Jr., Judith H. Blair, Francis J. Boyle, Charles W. Bushar III, Cynthia D. Collons, B. John Duffy, James Fizzano, John Baker Gray, Clayton E. Henderson, William L. Hess, George A. Hitz, Elizabeth M. Hyatt, Nancy Lauro, Joseph F. Lisinski, Barbara F. Margulis, Marcia McCallister, Robert Shaffer, and Charles M. Taylor. All of these members were recognized at the Suburban West Realtors® Association's Annual Membership Meeting on October 13th at the Springfield Country Club in Springfield.

During the presentation, Suburban West Chairman Leann Murphy (Re/Max Preferred in West Chester) offered the Association's gratitude for their many years of support, commenting to the recipients, "We hope you reflect on your years of service with a sense of pride and satisfaction in helping many local consumers realize their dream of home ownership."

Suburban West Realtors® Association is the largest local real estate association in Pennsylvania, representing over 5,300 real estate professionals in Chester County, Delaware County and the Main Line.
